The Accounts of the Abbeville Banner.

Our friends will bear in mind that we have no control over the accounts due the "Banner" office. They are the property of the former proprietor, Mr. W. W. Farrow. We bought only the material, and good-will, and subscription list.

LEE & WILSON.

Election in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The election returns in Ohio and Pennsylvania leave the result still doubtful. In Ohio there will be a Democratic majority in the Legislature, but it is doubted whether Pendleton is elected governor over Hayes. In Pennsylvania, the Republicans have carried the Legislature, and probably elected Geary over Packer.

The following are the returns: WASHINGTON, October 13.—Noon.—Careful comparison, based on partial returns from thirty counties, including Philadelphia and Allegheny, shows a Democratic gain of nearly 4,000. The remaining counties must average nearly 200 gain to elect Packer. Geary's majority in Philadelphia was 3,339.

CINCINNATI, October 13.—Hamilton County gives Pendleton 500 majority, and elects the entire Democratic municipal ticket. Pendleton is defeated by a very small majority; corrected returns may elect him. The House is Democratic; the Senate Republican. This defeats the State's sanction of the fifteenth amendment.

PHILADELPHIA, October 13.—Both branches of the Legislature are Republican. The Senate stands 18 to 15; House 36 to 17—giving 29 majority on joint ballot. All the papers but the Age give the State to Geary by from 5,000 to 10,000. The Age claims 5,000 for Packer.

CLEVELAND, October 13.—Returns from the third district state that Hayes loses 5,000. This stands 18 to 15; House 36 to 17—giving 29 majority on joint ballot. All the papers but the Age give the State to Geary by from 5,000 to 10,000. The Age claims 5,000 for Packer.

EVENING.—Geary's majority in thirty-six counties is nearly 5,000. The remaining thirty counties must average 157 gain to elect Packer. The election will be very close, but the chances are in favor of Geary.

The few detailed returns from Ohio indicate Pendleton's election.

Our District Agricultural Fair.

Last week we published a list of the committees appointed for our approaching District Fair, and this week we are printing 1000 hand-bills containing in addition to these, the Premium Lists, Constitution, Regulations &c., which we have repeatedly laid before our readers. These being disseminated throughout the length and breadth of our District, we feel assured, will awaken a becoming interest in behalf of our Fair.

The Fair it will be recollected will be open for exhibition on the 3d, 4th and 5th November next. All articles for exhibition must be entered before 5 o'clock Tuesday evening, the 2d November, except animals, which may be entered by 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the 3d November.

We trust to see on the occasion a display of articles, and an attendance of spectators, which shall remind us of the days of our past prosperity. To make our Fair a success, let us only will it to be so, and the work will be done.

Let us all turn out—old men and matrons—young men and maidens—boys and girls—exhibit what we can and if we exhibit nothing else let us exhibit ourselves.

DEATH OF DR. WM. HENRY CALHOUN.—A private letter to his relatives here announces the death of Dr. Wm. Henry Calhoun at his residence, in Mississippi, on the 24th ult. His death was very sudden. He had gone with his brother-in-law, Dr. Orr, to visit a patient, whom finding very ill, they remained all night. The deceased retired to bed at about 12 o'clock much indisposed, and soon dropped to sleep. About two hours after, he was discovered dead—it is supposed from disease of the heart. The deceased was a nephew of the great Carolina statesman, a brother of Jno. A. Calhoun, Esq., of our District, and the brother-in-law of Judge Orr. He removed from our District in 1845 and leaves here many relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

CHARLESTON OYSTERS.—An enterprising Charlestonian has undertaken to put these delicious bivalves within the reach of the benighted people of Abbeville, and the first class names to which he refers are a guarantee that he is all right. See advertisement.

See advertisement of J. D. Aiken & Co., the well known Factors and Commission Merchants of Charleston, S. C. Concerning the high character and established reputation, we take pleasure in recommending them to the patronage of our people. They will make liberal advancements on consignments to our friends in New York.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET!

For the Legislature!

MATTHEW McDONALD.
WM. K. BRADLEY.

The Rev. J. N. Young, and Mr. P. A. Connor, the former nominees of our people for the vacant seats in the Legislature, having declined for reasons satisfactory to our citizens, the delegates from the various sections of our District met again on Wednesday last, and nominated Matthew McDonald, Esq., and Mr. Wm. K. Bradley, as our standard bearers in the coming election.

Let the white people of the District go to work with the proper spirit, and the success of the ticket is assured—assured by the combined support of whites and blacks.

White men and black men! We address you the same arguments—appeal to common interests, in support of common ends. Here are men born and raised among you; known to you all their lives; and to whom every black man can say, as the men of Israel to their prophet—"thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, nor taken aught of any man's hand!" They are men that have common interests with you; will you support them. We know that you will; and with "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether," we will elect the people's ticket. Remember the 27th October.

MODEL ELECTIONEERING BY THE ALL-DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—We learn that Messrs. T. A. Sullivan, and P. M. Giffin, Radical candidates for the Legislature, left the village, on last Wednesday evening, freighted with three gallons of whiskey, to hold a meeting at Mr. John Devlin's plantation in the lower part of the District. We leave it to the imaginations of our readers to conceive the character of a meeting held under such circumstances—at night, with the bad liquor, and the worse cunning of the incendiary on the one side, and the simple faith, and excitable passions of the blind dupe on the other. The meeting was held near the residence of the Rev. Mr. Sloan, who was disturbed by the carousals of these midnight brawlers, and adjourned at a late hour, with a discharge of fire-arms. Messrs. Sullivan and Giffin, if you will electioneer, please have some regard for the public peace—select more reasonable hours, and do not distribute your liquor quite so freely.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.—Died, on the 10th inst., at Concord, New Hampshire, Franklin H. Pierce, Ex-President of the United States. He was born in Hillsborough, New Hampshire, in 1804; studied law in the office of Judge Woodbury; served successively in the State Legislature, and in Congress; was tendered the post of Attorney-General of the United States, by President Polk, which he declined; served as Brigadier in the Mexican War; and was elected President in 1852. President Pierce was a true representative of the better class of American Statesmen, a man of great purity of character, and consistency of life—of strong will, indomitable energy, and eminent social qualities. These last formed the elements of his success.

THE STATE FAIR.—Our readers will recollect that the State Agricultural Fair comes off in Columbia, on the 10th November next, closing on the 12th—being the week after our own District Fair. Every preparation is being made to ensure its success. An attractive premium list has been gotten up, large and commodious buildings are being erected, and arrangements are being made to accommodate in private houses such of the large crowd of visitors, who may fail to get accommodation in the hotels of the city. We trust to see a full representation from our District, and feel assured that the success of our own District Fair will impart to our citizens renewed interest in the State Fair.

EDGEFIELD COURT.—The Court in Edgefield has been in session during the past two weeks. The Grand Jury consists of eight whites and eleven blacks—one of the Petit Juries entirely of blacks, the other with a considerable sprinkling. R. B. Elliott, a negro lawyer was present, assisting the Solicitor. Several murder cases were tried. In the case of the State vs. Blens, for the murder of Rutherford, the defendant was acquitted. In the case of the State vs. Booth for the murder of Toney, the defendant was found guilty of manslaughter. In the case of the State vs. Geo. B. and James Addison for the murder of Charles M. Crosswell, the Grand Jury found "no bill."

It is expected that Judge Orr will hold an Extra Court in January next for the dispatch of civil business. See notice of the annual meeting of the Board of County Commissioners on the 1st Tuesday of November next. Also, accounts against the County must be presented to the Clerk of the Board, Mr. Robert Jones, by the 1st November next.

We commend to the attention of our readers the advertisement of Messrs. Quaples, Perrin & Co., who are now receiving their elegant Fall and Winter Stock. It has been purchased by Mr. Quarles with his usual skill and will be found to embrace the latest and most select New York styles. Whether you wish something ornamental or useful—the most elegant or the most substantial—you can scarcely fail to get here the best of its kind, at prices to suit the times. Their stock of ladies' goods is large and select—laces, silks and satins—shawls, cloaks and capes. Gentlemen will find a fine variety of clothing and furnishing goods. Call early and the Messrs. Perrin and Quarles will take pleasure in showing you through their stock.

These gentlemen advertise the best gunny bagging and arrow ties. Mr. Enoch Nelson advertises in another column his superior Fall and Winter Stock which has been selected by Capt. D. R. Williams with his best care and skill. No. 1 Granite Range embraces all the latest and most elegant styles of ladies' and gentlemen's dress goods—select and varied, in price and quality—something for each, and enough for all. No. 2 unfolds all the beautiful creations of the milliner's skill—hats, bonnets, flowers, veils, in charming variety and rich profusion. In No. 3 you will find an extensive stock of the best groceries—all warranted fresh and select.

Messrs. Williams, Dendy, and Allen will be pleased to do the honors of the Dry Goods department—Mrs. Cain, an experienced and skillful milliner, late of Baltimore, to exhibit whatever is lovely in her line—and Messrs. Rogers to show the best of solids and fluids. Give them each and all a call.

THE ELECTION.—In our last we published a new list of Managers of election appointed by L. L. Giffin, Chairman, of the Board of Commissioners. We have our doubts whether Mr. Giffin has any authority at all in the premises, but scarcely any doubt but that he has improperly instructed the managers as to their duties with regard to registration. It would take a Philadelphia lawyer to tell what the present election law is, in the "confusion worse confounded" of the present Radical chaos—but a simpleton may tell what it is not.

We would advise the managers to keep separate lists and separate boxes for all names which do not appear on their Registration Books—if they receive them at all!

H. F. Russell & Co., 209 Broad Street, Augusta, Ga., are one of the most enterprising and liberal of the city firms. It is a pleasure to advertise for them, and we are sure it is an equal pleasure to purchase from them. They are now receiving one of the most attractive Fall and Winter stocks of Dry Goods ever brought to a Southern market. Read their advertisement and judge for yourselves. With them will be found Mr. Perrin Wardlaw who will be pleased to see his Abbeville friends. When visiting the city do not forget to call at Russell & Co's.

Thursday, (yesterday) was the grand opening day in the Millinery department of the "Emporium of Fashion." The beauty and fashion of Abbeville were there to do honor to occasion, and amid the profusion of lovely flowers, natural and artificial the scene was somewhat bewildering. It was difficult to say which was most beautiful, the observed or the observers. Messrs. Fowler & McDonald are not only imitating some of the city customs, but emulating the city styles and city prices. The taste and skill of Mrs. Sassard and Mrs. Wier are guarantees of what may be found in their department.

The Abbeville correspondent of the Charleston Republican, thinks Mr. T. A. Sullivan, a very intelligent census-taker, (ergo ergo, a proper representative), admits that he has no knowledge of the people of Abbeville, but thinks the least he knows, the better of such a set of "bushwhackers and murderers," (yet these are the very people "whose goods and chattels" he wants to represent) wonders that they did not select W. K. Tolbert. (We had supposed that the Radicals claimed him—bag and baggage—body and soul.)

By reference to the advertisement of Messrs. McDonald, Norwood & Co. it will be seen that they are daily receiving additions to their large and select stock of provisions and groceries. In addition to this they have laid in a very complete stock of dry goods, and in both departments will be able to serve their friends and patrons with the best of everything, at prices to suit the times. Don't forget to give them a call!

President Davis reached Baltimore on Saturday last, en route for his home in Mississippi, where it is supposed he will remain permanently. The Virginia Legislature has ratified the 14th and 15th Amendments.

Imperative Rule Relative to Change of Firm & Request for Special Tax Assessments, Transfers and Refundings. OFFICE INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, Sept. 1, 1869. SIR:—On account of the frequent inquiries made in regard to liability of special tax upon change of firm, you are requested to republish the ruling of this office upon the subject, as follows:—Every change of firm where a former partner retires from the same, or a new partner is admitted, constitutes in contemplation of law, a new firm, liable to new special tax for the unexpired portion of the year for which the same has been paid by the original firm, which should be assessed from the first day of the month in which the change occurs.

There is no provision in the law by which a person retiring from business during the year for which he has paid the tax, can transfer his receipt to the person succeeding him. In the case of manufacturers, dealers, apothecaries, confectioners, butchers, keepers of eating houses, hotels, or taverns, who have paid special tax as such, if, at the time of change of firm, the sales, products or gross receipts, as the case may be, have not exceeded $1,000, the special tax will be refunded upon application made in proper form.

If the tax paid is that of wholesale dealers, and the time of the change the sales did not exceed $25,000, forty dollars or fifty dollars will be refunded, according to whether the sales exceed $1,000 or not. (8 REVENUE 110.)

Very respectfully,
J. W. Doughtless,
Acting Commissioner.
P. V. R. VAN WYCK, Esq.,
Editor Internal Revenue Record.

THE FALL TRADE.—Our merchants are all receiving their Fall and Winter stocks, and there has been a brisk trade in Dry Goods and Groceries during the past week. It would be more lively but for the depressed condition of the cotton market. Unless our farmers are prepared to hold until next Spring, they had better bring on the cotton. At least enough to purchase indemnity for the past and security for the future. To our country friends we would say that the stocks of our merchants were never finer or their prices more accommodating. Read their advertisements and judge for yourselves. The Abbeville cotton market is the best in the country.

Messrs. White Brothers announce to the public their Fall and Winter Stock in an advertisement which speaks for itself. It is one of the most complete and select stocks which they have ever offered to the Abbeville public, and this is saying a good deal. Read and digest, and then call and examine for yourselves. They will hardly fail to find something to suit in price or quality. Call and examine—and then buy or not as you please. We think you will be pleased. They offer 250 lbs. superior Red Clover Seed, which we commend to the attention of our planters.

See notice of the sale on the 20th inst. of the personal property of personal property of the late F. A. Calhoun, consisting of horses, mules, cattle, hogs, corn fodder, cotton seed &c., &c.

See notice of valuable lands in Abbeville for sale by W. K. Blake and J. T. Parks, Greenwood, S. C. Purchasers will find it to their interest to enquire for further particulars.

See advertisements of Carpenter's celebrated extracts of Sarsaparilla and Buchu. A superior preparation. For sale by our druggists, Parker & Thomson, and W. T. Penney.

The citizens of Ninety Six, will apply for a charter of incorporation at the next session of the Legislature. See advertisement.

See notice of settlement of estate of W. O. Purseley, dec'd., on the 7th December next, by Wm. Hill, Esq., Judge of Probate.

President Grant has appointed Thursday, the 18th November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

The Court of Common Pleas is in session this week in Newberry, Judge Orr, presiding.

The communication from "Crittall" has been crowded out, but will appear in our next.
